ORISSA POLICE
C.I.D. CRIME BRANCH: CUTTACK

POLICE CIRCULAR ORDER No. 3 2 2 /2005

Subj: - RO To avoid undue electronic and print media exposure of accused persons, properties etc. to be put up in T.I. Parade.

Several instances have come to notice where, in property offence and other cases, where the accd. persons, property etc. required to be put up in T.I. Parade to strengthen evidence in the case(s), have been exposed to the electronic and print media even inside police stations, thereby diminishing the evidentiary value of T.I. Parades held subsequently. On many occasions, Police Officers are seen posing with accused persons and stolen properties in photos taken by the electronic & print media. For the purpose of preserving the evidentiary value of T.I. Parades, it is ordered that such exposure to the electronic and print media of accd. persons and properties to be put up in T.I. Parade should be avoided as much as possible.
