

POLICE ORDER No. 124

Instances have come to notice when case diaries in which a superior officer has passed some remarks have been returned in original to the Investigating Officers concerned for compliance. This practice is unsatisfactory and must cease. It is hereby ordered that a copy of the remarks made on the case diaries should be communicated to the Investigating Officers concerned by memoranda instead of returning the same in original. The compliance reports of the Investigating Officers should on receipt be passed against the respective remarks with necessary orders thereby by the superior officers who made the remarks.

(Previous Police Order Reference No. 3 of 1956)