

POLICE ORDER No. 189

Under influence
by Police Officer.

It has come to notice that some police officers have been approaching different officials and non-officials in the matter of their promotions, transfers and appeals against punishments and a times they are also engaging their friends and relatives for this purpose P. M. Rule 701-A prohibit such contacts.

If in future any police officer is found indulging in this practice, the S. P. should make note about this and keep the D. I.-G. informed who may in turn in deserving cases, bring matter to my notice. If any D. I.-G. becomes aware of any police officer indulging in such behaviour he should inform the S. P. about it for necessary action and should also keep me inform about it. In suitable cases there should be no hesitation to take disciplinary action against the officers concerned for violating instructions contained P. M. Rule 701-A.

(Previous Police Order Reference No. 8 of 1964)