

POLICE ORDER No. 10

Standardization of the conditions of service of the six armed reserves in Orissa. In order to standardize the conditions of service of the six armed reserves and of the Government House guard, Government have sanctioned the appointment of Naiks and Lance Naiks in the North Orissa districts and have also sanctioned an armed reserve allowance to the Havildars of the South Orissa districts. The Government Order embodying the sanction is reproduced below.

2. Superintendents of Cuttack, Puri, Balasore and Sambalpur will now make appointments of Naik and Lance Naik in accordance with Government's instructions. These appointments will have effect from the 1st November 1938. Naiks will wear constable's uniform with two chevrons and Lance Naiks with one chevron.

3. Appointment to the rank of Naik and Lance Naik will be made from the constables of the armed reserve and Government House guard only, and will have effect only so long as the incumbents remain in these forces. A register will be kept in the Reserve Office showing seniority among the men appointed.

4. There is no substantive rank of Naik or Lance Naik and the man so designated are constables for all the purposes of Government and Police regulations. Superintendents may therefore make these appointments and may remove incumbents from their posts without the formality of drawing up proceedings.

5. Superintendents of Ganjam and Koraput will note that Motor Transport Havildars are not entitled to the armed reserve allowance for Havildars.
