05	Brief of Work Done :- Awareness against Sorcery by Rayagada Police District. Following a rise in sorcery related violence in the district. Rayagada Police in association with the district administration and various social organizations have launched an awareness drive in the interior pockets of the district to sensitise people about the superstitions involved with witchcraft. Police organized its first awareness programme at remote Tadama village under Rayagada Police limits. According to police sources around 40 people have been killed in sorcery related violence in the district in past five years with the latest case involving murder of three persons, including a couple at a remote village in Gunupur in June.
