Sl. No.	Parameters	Total / Maximum Marks
	evaluation committee
Total Marks 100 (Passing Marks- 70 marks)		100

The number of points to be assigned to each of the experts shall be determined considering the following sub-criteria and relevant percentage weights:

- Minimum qualifications (Fulfilling minimum education criteria mentioned in the ToR): 20%
- Minimum Experience (Fulfilling Minimum Years of relevant experience criteria as mentioned in the ToR): 30%
- Relevant Sector Experience (Fulfilling experience criteria of relevant sector and assignment as mentioned in the ToR): 50%

For each Technical Proposal, the total points that can be awarded for each Bidder are 100, and the minimum technical score (T) that a Bidder requires to qualify for opening of the Financial Proposal is 70.

The highest evaluated Technical Proposal (Th) shall be given maximum Technical Score (St) of 100. The formula for determining the Technical Scores (St) of all other proposals is calculated as following:

$St = 100 \times T/Th$, in which “St” is the Technical Score, “Th” is the highest Technical Score given, and “T” is the Technical Score of the proposal under consideration.

- FINANCIAL EVALUATION (3rd Stage): The financial proposals of the bidders qualifying the technical evaluation (2nd Stage) only shall be opened at this stage in the presence of the bidder’s representative who wishes to attend the meeting with proper authorization letter. The name of the bidder along with the quoted financial price will be announced during the meeting.
- The lowest evaluated financial proposal (Sf) will be given a maximum financial score (Fm) of 100 points. The formula for determining the financial scores of other proposals will be computed as follows:
- $Sf = 100 \times Fm/F$, in which “Sf” is the financial score, “Fm” is the lowest price, and “F” the price of the Proposal under consideration.

10.Evaluation Process:

Proposals shall be ranked according to their combined technical (St) and financial (Sf) scores using the weights (T = the weight given to the Technical Proposal (0.7); P = the weight given to the Financial Proposal (0.3); T + P = 1) as following:

$$S = St \times T + Sf \times P,$$

The Selected Applicant shall be the First Ranked Applicant (having the highest combined score). The Second and Third Ranked Applicant shall be kept in reserve and may be invited for negotiations in case the first ranked Applicant withdraws or fails to comply with the requirements specified in the RFP document.

11.Performance Bank Guarantee (PBG):

Within 15 working days of notifying the acceptance of a proposal for award of contract, the qualified bidder shall have to furnish a Performance Bank Guarantee as defined in this RFP. Failure to comply with the terms and conditions of the contract agreement shall constitute sufficient grounds for the forfeiture of the PBG. The PBG shall be released immediately after three months of expiry of contract provided there is no breach of contract on the part of the qualified bidder. No interest shall be paid on the PBG.

12.Contract Negotiation:

Contract negotiation, if required, will be held at a date, time and address as intimated to the selected bidder/s. The bidder will, as a pre-requisite for attendance at the negotiations, confirm the availability of all the proposed staff for the assignment. Representative conducting negotiations on behalf of the bidder must have written authority to negotiate and conclude a contract. Negotiation will be performed covering technical and financial aspects, if any, and availability of proposed professionals etc.

13.Award of Contract:

After completion of the contract negotiation stage, the Odisha Police Department will notify the successful bidder in writing by issuing an offer letter for signing the contract and promptly notifying all other bidders about the result of the selection process. The successful bidders will be asked to sign the contract after fulfilling all formalities within 15 days of issuance of the offer letter. After signing of the contract, no variation or modification of the terms of the contract shall be made except by written amendment signed by both the parties. The contract will be valid for 36months from the date of effectiveness of the contract and will be extended on mutual consent.

14.Conflict of Interest:

Conflict of interest exists in the event of:

- a. As per CVC guidelines

15.Disclosure:

- i. Bidders have an obligation to disclose any actual or potential conflict of interest. Failure to do so may lead to disqualification of the bidder or termination of its contract.
 - Bidders must disclose if they as valid on date, are or have been the subject of any proceedings (such as blacklisting) or other arrangements relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, or the financial standing of the Bidder, including but not limited to appointment of any officer such as a receiver in relation to the Bidder's personal or business matters or an arrangement with creditors, or of any other similar proceedings.
- ii. Bidders must disclose if they have been convicted of, or are the subject of any proceedings relating to:
 - A criminal offence or other serious offence punishable under the law of the land, or where they have been found by any regulator or professional body to have committed professional misconduct.
 - Corruption including the offer or receipt of an inducement of any kind in relation to obtaining any contract.
 - Failure to fulfill any obligations in any jurisdiction relating to the payment of taxes or social security contributions.

16. Anti-corruption Measure:

- i. Any effort by Bidder(s) to influence the Odisha Police Department in the evaluation and ranking of financial proposals, and recommendation for award of contract, will result in the rejection of the proposal.
- ii. A recommendation for award of Contract shall be rejected if it is determined that the recommended bidder has directly, or through an agent, engaged in corrupt, fraudulent, collusive, or coercive practices in competing for the contract in question. In such cases, the Odisha Police Department shall blacklist the bidder either indefinitely or for a stated period of time, disqualifying it from participating in any related bidding process for the said period.

17. Language of Proposals:

The proposal and all related correspondence exchanged between the bidder and the Odisha Police Department shall be written in the English language. Supporting documents and printed literature that are part of the proposal may be in another language provided they are accompanied by an accurate translation of the relevant passages in English with self-certification for accuracy, in which case, for the purposes of interpretation of the Proposal, the translated version shall govern.

18. Cost of Bidding:

The Bidder shall bear all costs associated with the preparation and submission of its proposal. The Odisha Police Department shall not be responsible or liable for those costs, regardless of the conduct or outcome of the bidding process. A bidder is not

- f) Analyze the impact of anticipated growth from redevelopment and annexation on staffing levels and calls for service.
- g) Based on historical data and the current tenure of existing officers, project the department's attrition for the next ten years.
- h) Review, compare, and contrast the department's recruitment and retention efforts and methods (including diversity recruiting) with other law enforcement agencies of similar size and demographics.
- i) Provide a complete review and analysis of organizational structure, staffing levels, staffing requirements by function, facilities and equipment needs (including fleet plan suggestions), department policies and directives, policing strategies, community linkages, and personnel systems to include career path development, recognition programs, and internal affairs.
- j) Review the number, type, and purpose of the department's various organizational components (divisions, sections, and units), and interrelationships that exist between them. Determine if similar or compatible functions are assembled in logical groupings and the extent to which authority and responsibility is properly allocated between them. Assess the way the efforts of all components are planned, directed, coordinated, and supervised.
- k) Determine whether the allocation of resources of the Patrol Division and Investigations Divisions are efficient and adequate for the needs of the state in a holistic manner. Review the current workload data such as: calls for police service, received and dispatched, the breakdown of calls for service by type, frequency, distribution, and relative priority, alternatives to traditional police response, proactive activities, non-criminal service requests, response times, and mutual aid agreements.
- l) Review the patrol operation for effectiveness and efficiency to consider things such as: number of and availability of units; workload at various times and locations; deployment of allocated units; scheduling of staff, and effectiveness of community service programs.
- m) Evaluate the department's current rank structure, the number of managers and supervisors at every level and function, and the authority at each level of the chain of command. Analyze the organizational structure of the police department as it relates to accepted standards of organizational theory and practice. Determine if the organizational structure complies with professionally accepted concepts, such as: unity of command; span of control; and the logical grouping of activities, functions, and organizational components. Consider enhancements that may be justified in the future in the event of additional staffing and/or modification to the organizational structure.

- n) Review trends in community policing. Compare “best practices” community policing programs in communities of similar size and demographics with Longview’s approach to policing. The department is interested in introducing youth programs such as Police Explorers, Police Activities League, and Cadet Program as long-term crime prevention strategies and potential future recruitment sources.
- o) Identify tasks that can be completed in a more efficient and/or economical method, such as by using civilians, reassignment of staff, consolidation of the organizations structure, regionalization strategies, or other resources.
- p) Review various management functions for effectiveness and efficiency, such as: the mission statement and how closely it is followed; internal communications and how effective they are; and labor contracts and policies and procedures and the impact they have on employee morale and services provided.
- q) Classify services and operations into a systematic organization that allows costs and effectiveness to be understood and differentiated. These services and operations shall include those expected of a modern municipal police department matching the size and workload of the department and does not necessarily conform to those currently being provided by the Police Department. Possible services and issues should include the identification of services that may be added, eliminated, combined, regionalized, or privatized to provide appropriate levels of service for Odisha Police.
- r) Review administrative functions for effectiveness and efficiency, such as utilization of available funds; coordination and scheduling of training functions; the current state of equipment and facility needs; the planning of future capital needs and implementation.
- s) Police Sector knowledge management for Crime Reduction plan, Cyber Crime, Police Training and capacity building, Crime against Women and child, Economic Offense, Special task force, prison, Law, and order etc.
- t) IEC and social media advisory including grievances redressal, citizen engagement, and feedback analysis mechanism.
- u) Evaluate the effects of emerging trends in technology on the range of services and delivery. Enhanced crime analysis and “force multiplier” technologies such as red light and speed radar camera systems and license plate recognition, security camera technology, and web-based reporting systems which are of particular interest of the Police Department.
- v) Any other organizational improvements that can be made to enhance overall service.
