

POLICE CIRCULAR ORDER No. 8

Police Manual
Rules 623 (g) 624 (e), 703
and 839 regarding duties of Officers of the Reserve.

Your attention is directed to the above Police Manual Rules. The inspector-General has remarked that the State of some Police Lines leaves a good deal to be desired, especially as regards bricks, stones and jungle. The latter should be out down at the end of the monsoons and your grounds cleared and cleaned up. The practice of having an "Orderly Officer for the Day" from amongst Platoon Commanders, and an Orderly Havildar amongst, Section Commanders (on the Army principle), one of whose duties is to inspect barracks, kitchens, compounds, etc., and to bring defects to notice at once, is recommended for your adoption if it does not already exist.

(Previous Police Circular Order No. 2 of 1943)