

POLICE CIRCULAR ORDER No. 137

Training or Detective
Havildars.

The question whether detective constables who are allowed accelerated promotion to the rank of Havildar in an officiating capacity should undergo a course of training at the P.T.C., Angul prior to their confirmation in that rank was under examination in this office for some time past. After careful consideration, the Inspector General is pleased to decide that henceforward detective Havildars should be put through the Town Havildar refresher course before confirmation. A list of officiating detective Havildars who are required to undergo this training shall be called for by this office on the 1st December every year and the nominees put through the course on the 1st February of the following year.

those who pass the test will be confirmed as detective Havildars and the cases of those who fail will be decided by the Inspector-General as to whether they should be through further test or reverted to the rank of Constable.

This order will not apply to those who have already been confirmed as detective Havildars.

Manual reference

Rule 660-A

* (Previous Police Circular Order No. 11 of 1960)