

POLICE CIRCULAR ORDER No. 148

Uniformity in designation.

Instances have come to notice that no uniformity is being maintained in the designation of the Inspectors of Police placed in charge of Police Circles. In some districts, they are designated as "Divisional Inspectors" while in others, they are called "Circle Inspectors".

For the purpose of maintaining uniformity in designations, it is hereby ordered that Inspectors of Police in-charge of Police Circles should be designated as "Circle Inspectors" and not as "Divisional Inspectors".

(Previous Police Circular Order No. 11 of 1961)