

POLICE CIRCULAR ORDER NO. 267 Dt. 27-2-87

During inspection of Sri S. Sinha, I.P.S., special I.-G. of Police (Crime), Orissa, Cuttack on D.P.O., Cuttack (Sadar) it came to notice that there is gross delay in disposal of a large number of cases as the G.Os., who have supervised these cases have committed unreasonable delay in writing supervision notes. The I.Os. have tried to meet the G.Os. on several occasions to furnish facts for writing supervision notes but the G.Os. are not available on some account or other and have time and again stalled writing of supervision notes. It is presumed that similar is the problem in other districts too. It is, ordered that Supervision notes be written by the G.Os. at the spot wherever possible or at their next place of halt. Delay in writing of supervision notes should be seriously viewed and the Range D.Is.G. should pull up and also adversely report of officers of their range who are delaying in issue of Supervision notes.
