

POLICE CIRCULAR ORDER No. 74

Writing of case diaries
in Oriya

It is reported that owing to their inability to express themselves properly in the English language, inaccuracies have crept into the case diaries prepared by some of the investigating officers who are, however well-versed in Oriya. It is, therefore, ordered that the diaries be written in Oriya by these officers who consider it advantageous.

Manual reference

.. P. M. Rule 164

(Previous police circular order No. 8 of 1953)