

POLICE CIRCULAR ORDER No. 94

Comment against H.W.E. copy
to S.P.C.B.

It is hereby directed that if in any case in which an expert of the handwriting Bureau of the Central Investigation Department has given his opinion and has appeared as a witness in a court to attest the same, his opinion is not accepted or there are adverse comments relating to him, a copy of the judgement should be furnished by the Superintendent of Police to the Crime Branch for necessary action.

(Previous Police Circular Order No. 13 of 1954)