

POLICE ORDER No. 134

Pendency of large number of non-F. I. R. cases in courts. It has come to notice that a large number of non-F.I.R. cases remain pending in courts for years together. In order to draw the attention of the District Magistrate and the Member, Board of Revenue concerned towards this state of affairs from time to time a statement should be prepared once a quarter and submitted along with the Quarterly Crime Review to concerned authorities for necessary action.
