

POLICE ORDER No. 29

Submission of applications for reimbursement of the cost incurred by Police Officers and men in defending themselves in false cases.

To avoid unnecessary correspondence and delay the Inspector-General directs that all applications for reimbursement of expences incurred by Police Officers and men in defending themselves in false cases shall be accompanied by the following documents:—

1. A copy of the Court's judgements
2. A complete copy of the magisterial order sheet
3. A clearly certified statement by the Superintendent of Police that the conduct of the Police Officer or man concerned was free from all the blame.
4. Dates on which the accused Police Officer or man had to attend court
5. Vouchers in support of amount claimed.
